Withdrawing earned funds

Once your funds reach the minimum amount required for withdrawals, you can request them to be withdrawn from your Freelancer.com account. You can have them withdrawn to any of these methods.

1. Hover over your account balance, and select Withdraw Money.

2. Select your preferred method to receive your earnings. The available payment methods vary from country to country. We do not charge fees for withdrawing earned funds, except for Wire Transfers which include a $25 processing fee.

3. Provide the details required for your selected withdrawal method.

4. Indicate how much you wish to withdraw and in what currency. The minimum withdrawal amount is $30 USD (or its equivalent in other currencies) except for Wire Transfers where the minimum withdrawal amount is $500 USD.

5. Click Withdraw Funds to submit your request.

Your request will be sent to the Pending Withdrawals table on the same page, where its details and status will be made available.

Raising an invoice

Once you have completed the agreed work on the Job or Hourlie to receive payment you just need to raise an invoice to ask the Buyer to release the deposit funds from Escrow and pay any remaining balance.

1. Go to the WorkStream with that Buyer.
2. At the bottom, click Raise Invoice.

A couple of points to note:

- You can only raise an invoice in a WorkStream where you have had a proposal accepted by a Buyer. If you missed that step then raise your Proposal to your Buyer first and ask them to accept it.
- If you are raising an invoice for an Hourlie service you have delivered please note that you can only raise your invoice for the price of the Hourlie i.e. the agreed purchase price.
- If you haven't already, you will need to fill out your bank details and address under Settings > Payments

2.

3. Fill out the invoice form and click Send.

4.

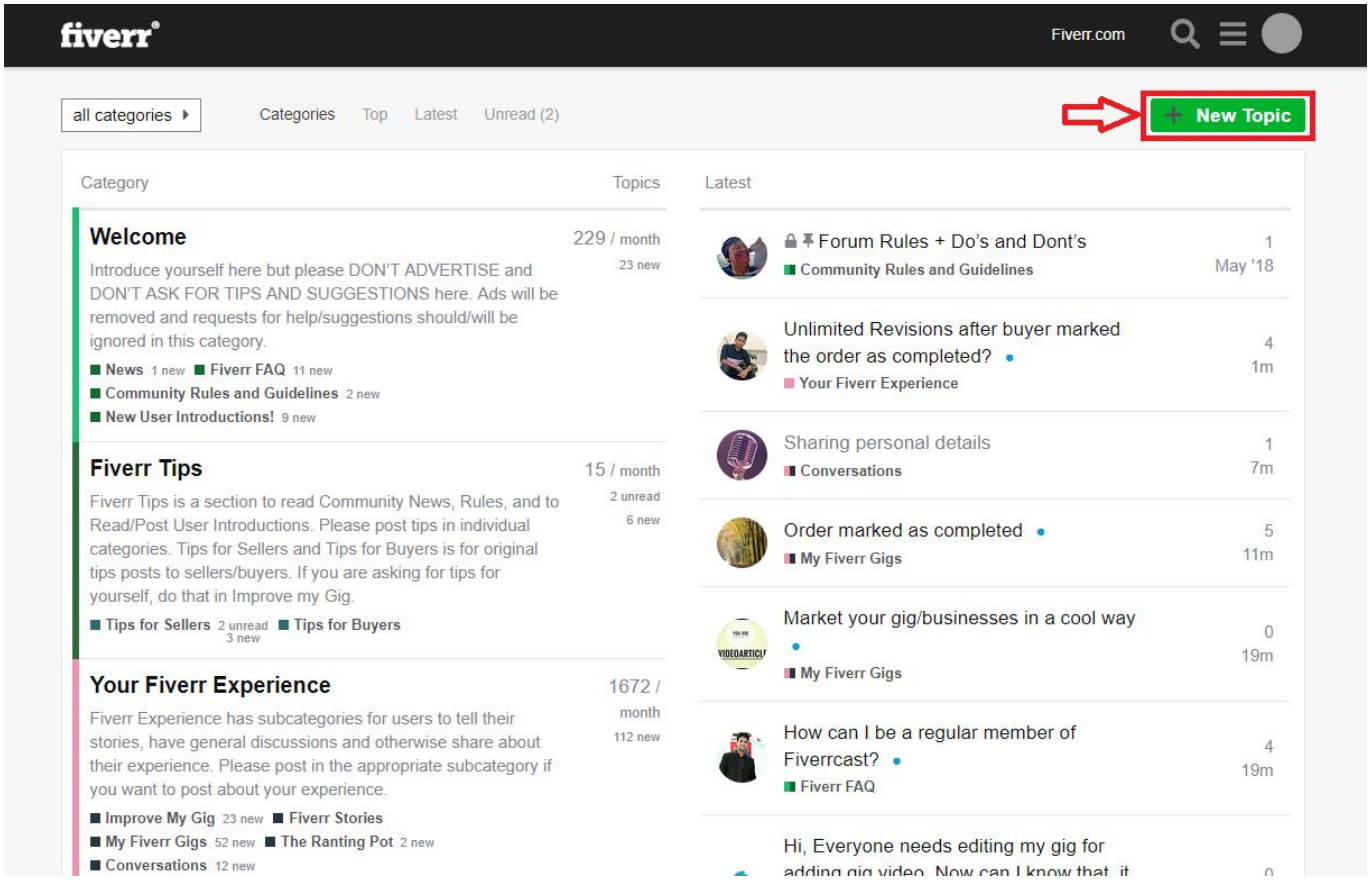

- Your invoice will appear on the WorkStream and your Buyer will be notified by email.
- Your Buyer is asked to pay your invoice within 7 days.

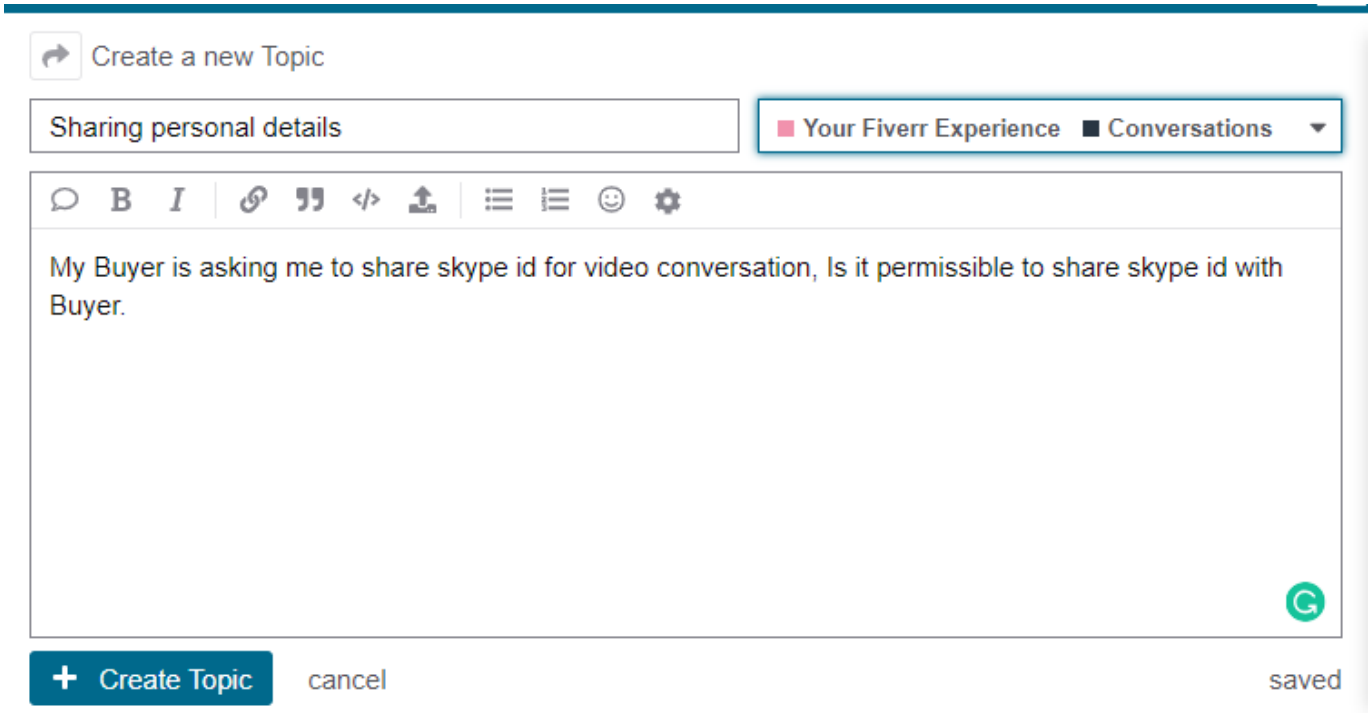

Task B:

- Ask any question related to Platform or Terms of Services (TOS) at any Freelance marketplace's community/forum. (Screenshot Required)*
